I am appealing to the younger generations to join this New Krishna movement for rendering the highest humanitarian service. All over the world the younger generations are joining this movement. There is a great task before us. Without Krishna consciousness the human society is becoming hellish. To save this situation we have spread this movement in every town and every village all over the surface of the world. It is already being done and I wish that it may be done more vigorously. This movement is authorized, genuine and
